Practice Profile

Esmond focuses on civil and commercial litigation, with particular experience in banking and financial disputes, contract claims, arbitration, company disputes, corporate and personal insolvency. He frequently appears in and advises on a broad spectrum of multi-jurisdictional disputes and cross-border liquidation matters. He is recognised by The Legal 500 Asia-Pacific (2026) as a “Rising Star” in Commercial Disputes.

His substantial practice in asset recovery and injunctive application encompasses breach of fiduciary duty, restitution and civil fraud. Esmond has also been instructed in a wide range of matrimonial proceedings, and cases covering trusts and probate, personal injuries and building management.

Esmond has acted for state-owned enterprises, local and foreign licensed banks, statutory bodies, property developers, companies listed in Hong Kong and abroad, liquidators, licensed moneylenders, SFC-licensed entities, high net worth individuals and celebrities.

Esmond also maintains his criminal practice for the defence at both trial and appellate levels, which spans white-collar crimes involving commercial fraud, money laundering, bribery and public misconduct, market manipulation and securities-related prosecution, immigration offences and other general crimes. Esmond is also recognised by The Legal 500 Asia-Pacific (2025) and (2026) as a “Rising Star” in the area of Regulatory, Investigations & Crime.
