Practice Profile

Jeff has a broad civil practice with a primary focus on commercial disputes, including in particular company, securities, insolvency and bankruptcy law. His practice also spans the areas of employment, property as well as probate, trusts and mental health matters.

He is also actively developing a practice in international commercial arbitration and is a member of the Chartered Institute of Arbitrators and an HKIAC Accredited Tribunal Secretary.

Recognized as a leading junior in Legal 500 Asia Pacific: Hong Kong Bar (2025), Jeff is frequently instructed to appear as an advocate on his own in the High Court (including the Court of Appeal), the District Court, the Lands Tribunal, statutory boards (such as the Market Misconduct Tribunal) and arbitral proceedings. He has accumulated significant experience throughout the civil litigation process, including interlocutory applications, trials, appeals and taxation proceedings.

He frequently acts for listed companies and high-net-worth individuals on his own and as part of a larger team in complex and high-value disputes with PRC and/or cross-border dimensions. He has also acted for and advised public bodies.

Outside of his practice, he is a Professional Consultant at the Faculty of Law of the Chinese University of Hong Kong and teaches conveyancing and probate practice on its Postgraduate Certificate in Laws course. He has also been appointed by the Hong Kong Government as a member of the Appeal Panel (Estate Agents Ordinance), involving in the handling of appeals against the licensing or disciplinary decisions of the Estate Agents Authority.

Jeff studied at the University of Hong Kong, where he graduated third in his cohort in law and was placed on the Dean's Honours List for three consecutive years. He went on to read for a Master of Laws degree at King's College London and graduated top of his class with the Dickson Poon School of Law Prize.

He is fluent in English, Mandarin and Cantonese. In particular, he has conducted proceedings, including cross-examination, in Mandarin.
