Practice Profile

Jenny joined Bernacchi Chambers upon completion of her pupillage. In the same year, she was named a Charles Ching Scholar by the Hong Kong Bar Association.

Jenny accepts instructions in all areas of Chambers' work and is particularly experienced in family, companies, and general civil matters. She can conduct cases and drafting legal documents in both English and Chinese.

Additionally, Jenny has a balanced criminal practice, acting for both the prosecution as counsel on fiat and defence. In law school, she was awarded the Prize for Criminal Litigation Practice in PCLL for ranking first among her cohort in the course.
