

Jenny Y. Zhang

Call

2021 (Hong Kong)

Languages

English

Cantonese

Mandarin

French (working knowledge)

Areas of Practice

Criminal Law

Family & Matrimonial Law

Contract

Equity & Trusts

Property & Land

Injunction & Contempt

Personal Injury

Contact

Secretary: Ms. Miki Chan

miki@bernacchichambers.com

Practice Profile

Jenny joined Bernacchi Chambers upon completion of her pupillage with Ms. Anita Yip SC, Mr. Alan M.S. Ng, Mr. Kevin Hon, Mr. Giles Surman, and Mr. Adonis Cheung. In the same year, she was awarded the Charles Ching Memorial Scholarship from the Hong Kong Bar Association.

Jenny is developing a mixed civil and criminal practice, and accepts instructions in all areas of Chambers' work, with a keen interest in criminal, matrimonial and contract law. She is capable of conducting cases and drafting legal documents in both English and Chinese.

In law school, Jenny was an avid mooter, having participated in various local and international mooted competitions. She was awarded the Prize for Criminal Litigation Practice in PCLL for ranking first among her cohort in the course.

Prior to joining the Bar, Jenny studied music and worked in the business sector where she took on roles in management, marketing, trading, HR, and compliance. Jenny has developed strong interpersonal skills and commercial sense from her experience as a musician and in local and international business which she applies to her practice as a litigator.

Education

- PCLL, The Chinese University of Hong Kong
- JD, The Chinese University of Hong Kong
- Master of Education, The University of Hong Kong
- BA (Music) (High Honours; Distinction in Major), The University of California, Santa Barbara

Scholarship & Award

- Charles Ching Memorial Scholarship (2021)
- Prize for Criminal Litigation Practice (2019-2020)