Practice Profile

Myranda was called to the Bar in 2020. She served pupillage with Mr Selwyn Yu SC, Mr Thomas Lee, Mr Adonis Cheung, Mr Isaac Chan and Mr Martin Ho. From 2020 to 2021, she was a Judicial Assistant at the Hong Kong Court of Final Appeal, where she assisted judges with substantive appeals and applications for leave to appeal, and in researching a wide range of legal issues.

Myranda obtained her undergraduate law degree from the University of Cambridge and her LLM in Corporate and Commercial Law from the London School of Economics. During her studies, she volunteered with the Free Representation Unit in London, where she represented applicants before a social security tribunal. She also represented Hong Kong in the Philip C. Jessup International Law Moot United States' rounds.

Myranda is developing a mixed civil and criminal practice. She accepts instructions in all areas of Chambers' work.
