Practice Profile

Steven is a battle-hardened advocate in both civil and criminal matters.

Steven has an artisanal practice. His work for each client is handcrafted with care and precision, based on more than 30 years of experience in the trenches.

His civil practice covers public law, general civil procedure, company law, conflict of laws, contract law, evidence, guaranty and indemnity, land, legal profession, limitation of actions, mutual legal assistance and trust.

On the criminal side, Steven defended a major property developer charged with conspiring with the Chief Secretary for the latter to misconduct himself in public office. The developer represented by Steven was the only defendant fully acquitted by the jury after a trial lasting for more than 120 days.

Steven also represented one of the 47 defendants (known as the “Hong Kong 47”) charged with conspiracy to commit subversion in connection with the 2020 Hong Kong pro-democracy primaries. Steven’s lay client was acquitted unanimously by a panel of designated judges after a trial lasting for 118 days.

Steven has been a member of Bernacchi Chambers since 1993.
