Practice Profile

Albert was educated at Winchester College and read English at the University of Oxford. Before practising as a barrister, Albert was a journalist covering law and politics in Hong Kong. He has a broad practice with a particular focus on judicial review applications, human rights, national security, media law, and privacy.

Albert is the current contributing editor for the chapter on National Security in Archbold HK and was also formerly a part-time lecturer in Law and Ethics at the School of Journalism and Communications at the Chinese University of Hong Kong. He is listed by Legal 500 in the Leading Junior category for Administrative and Public Law.

Albert also has experience in matters relating to extradition, restraint orders, disciplinary and regulatory proceedings, contempt of court, and general civil proceedings. He has acted for the Prosecution and the Defence in criminal trials.
